

English Idiom

Blow A Gasket

Blow A Gasket - to lose your temper; to get very angry

- The girls are going to blow a gasket, when they see that someone stole their car.
- My father is going to blow a gasket, when he sees the bill.
- I blew a gasket, when I heard I was not invited to the party.
- The football coach is going to blow a gasket if the other team does not play fair.
- My parents blew a gasket, because the police had to come to the house.