

English Idiom

Bring The House Down

Bring The House Down - a very successful performance when the audience gives a standing ovation; an audience that stands on their feet after a performance

- The concert was excellent. They brought down the house.
- I know you are going to bring down the house.
- The performance last night brought down the house. It was amazing.
- The football team really brought down the house last night. The fans went crazy.
- The speech really brought down the house. It was an amazing speech.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com

