

English Idiom

Bull Headed

Bull Headed - to be very stubborn; to be headstrong

- My sister is bull headed. She is determined to get to medical school
- My boss is always bull headed. He does not want to listen to anyone.
- My horse is very bull headed. He will not listen to anyone.
- My husband is very bull headed. He will not let anyone help him. He wants to do it himself.
- Why are you so bull headed? I want to help you.
- We need a new roof, but my father wants to do it himself. He is very bull headed.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com

