

English Idiom

Sack Out

Sack Out - to go to sleep; to go to bed

- I am very tired, so I am going to sack out.
- We sacked out on our way home from work on the bus.
- I always sack out in the plane.
- I usually sack out when I get home from work.
- My brother came home, and he sacked out.
- I am so tired. I just want to go and sack out.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com