

English Idiom

Shot Off Your Mouth

Shot Off Your Mouth - to speak about something that should not be spoken about

- My sister likes to shot off her mouth. It is better not to talk to her.
- I told my brother not to shot of his mouth at dinner tonight.
- It is not good to shot off your mouth to the police.
- Why did you shot off your mouth? Now, I am in a lot of trouble.
- My boss sometimes shots off his mouth at the wrong time.
- I will not shot off my mouth when your family comes to visit.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com

